Relief Problems of Quebec Explained to Federal Government

Premier Duplessis Leads Delegation to Ottawa—Prime Minister Hopes for Satisfactory Co-operative Efforts and Promises Consideration

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—Cabinet Council today gave consideration to submissions made by a Quebec delegation consisting of Premier Duplessis and his Cabinet and a party of mayors on urgent relief problems in that province. Further consideration will be given tomorrow and a statement may be issued at noon.

Prior to the Cabinet Council, the Dominion ministers met the Quebec delegation in an amicable discussion, which brought an expression of hope from Prime Minister Macdonald once his Government would not resort to Governor-General's warrants authorizing expenditures necessary to meet Premier Duplessis' request that the Dominion and province enter into a works programme on a fifty-fifty basis relieving the municipalities of any share in the cost.

RESERVED FOR PARLIAMENT
Such a procedure would be a violation of the exclusive right of Parliament to vote money for any but the most emergent and unforeseen contingencies.

Mayor Houde said Montreal was forced to use sinking funds for direct relief and transients were crowding in from all parts of the Dominion. He feared there would be lawlessness and disorder in Montreal.

To a charge by Premier Duplessis that while unemployment was increasing Federal grants to Quebec were decreasing, Mr. Rogers said the Federal grants to Quebec were $3,000,000 greater in the last twelve months than in the previous twelve months.

But the Prime Minister said at which had not yet signed agreements with the Dominion for material aid and youth training projects this year, the minister said. Some $11,000,000 was available for municipal improvements and enlarged programmes of civic improvements in Quebec, but no advantage had been taken of it.

CANNOT CARRY SHARE
Premier Duplessis' argument was that the municipalities could not bear their share of the cost.

Mr. Mackenzie King said there could be no question of the responsibility of the municipalities. But where a municipality could not bear its share it was up to the Federal and Provincial Governments to assist.

Mayor Houde made a plea on behalf of Montreal. He thought the Federal Government which could borrow money more cheaply than any other body in Canada should come to the assistance of Montreal. The situation had to be faced, Mayor Houde insisted, and it was this Government's duty, whether there was another session of this Parliament or whether there was an election.

FIGHT FANS GIVEN THRILL

Five Hundred Escape Just In Time From Fire In Arena

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 10.—Five hundred fight fans escaped injury tonight when a fire that caused an estimated loss of $1,000,000 destroyed the Fairview Boxing Arena, a lumber yard and a warehouse containing $750,000 worth of Civilian Conservation Corps equipment.

The conflagration broke out in a lumber yard immediately adjoining the arena shortly after 10:30 p.m. and for nearly an hour menaced huge nearby gasoline storage tanks.

Fire Chief Frank Pulaski, who called all of the city's fire-fighting apparatus and firemen into action, announced at 11:30 p.m. that the blaze apparently was under control.

WRITER IS HERO
Out of smoke of the conflagration, James Allen, sports writer of The Nampa (Idaho) Free Press for seventeen years, emerged the hero.

The semi-final event of the boxing card was in the third round when Allen, the announcer, smelled smoke.

The lights began to flicker, smoke began rolling in from the lumber yard through the dressing-room. Five hundred people rose like a wave in the under-like wooden arena.

A plainclothes fireman slipped up to the side of Allen and whispered for him to clear the arena quickly and quietly—that the situation was serious.

"It's just a paper fire in the dressing-room," Allen told the audience, and the fans settled back in their seats.

"I think we'd better clear the arena until the smoke clears out—then we'll continue with the fight," Allen said.

Minutes later the arena was an inferno.

ASKS HELP FOR JEWISH PEOPLE

Portland Rabbi Pleads Cause Of Victims of Anti-Semite Persecutions

A plea for a sympathetic understanding of the problems of the Jewish race throughout the world, particularly for the victims of anti-Semite persecutions in Europe, was made by Dr. Henry J. Berkowitz, rabbi of Temple Beth Israel, Portland, and a member of the Portland Rotary Club, at the Victoria Rotary luncheon in the Empress Hotel yesterday.

"The plight of the Jews in Germany is indescribably miserable," Dr. Berkowitz declared. "Neither the newspaper publicity the sufferings of the Jews in the Reich have received, nor any words of mine, can give you an adequate impression of what my people are having to undergo at this very moment."

"The misfortunes of the Jews in Germany are the result of no wrong that they have done to Germany," the speaker continued. "It is now plain to all observers that the anti-Semite policy of Germany and the other dictator nations is only part of a power-politics programme. Hitler and his fellow dictators have realized that they could not keep their people up in arms unless they found an enemy against whom to direct their attacks. The so-called enemy they decided to attack were the helpless Jewish citizens of their own lands."

DICTATORSHIP BLOC
The axis powers of Germany, Italy and Japan have banded themselves together in opposition to the ideals and aspirations of the democratic nations of the world. Dr. Berkowitz declared. The anti-Semite policies of these countries, enriched their treasuries at the expense of Jewish businessmen, and put a thorn in the flesh of the democratic nations who felt obliged to care for the refugees.

Dr. Berkowitz concluded his address with an appeal to Rotarians to make the problems of Jewish refugees their own concern, and to do all in their power to minimize Jewish suffering.

The speaker was introduced by Percy B. Scutrah, past president of the club, and thanked by Walter Lunney, president.

During the meeting, Edward S. Read was introduced as a new member of Rotary.

OFFERS PLAN TO PROCESS REFUSE

City Sanitary Inspector Suggests Test Load of Garbage Be Crushed by Steam Roller

Numerous complaints made on Wednesday regarding large quantities of refuse washed up on the Dallas Road waterfront after being discharged in the straits by garbage scows led to consideration yesterday at the City Hall of a proposal to process garbage before dumping.

A plan to crush garbage before towing it to sea, so that old cans, bottles and other refuse would sink instead of washing ashore with the tide, was submitted by T. E. Lancaster, city sanitary inspector. He suggested that this plan should be tested by crushing a quantity of garbage under the city's street roller before loading it onto a scow to be dumped at sea this experiment to serve as a guide as to the advisability of installing a special crushing plant.

The suggested test was approved by Mayor Andrew McGavin.

Order Relaxes Pension Clause

Restrictions governing the granting of old age pensions were relaxed in one particular under an order-in-council signed yesterday, whereby it is now provided that applicants for pensions must have been resident within the province for 700 days of the preceding three years. Previously it was required that applicants must have been resident in the province for 700 days of the preceding two years. The twenty years' legal residence qualification still stands however.

FALSE CALLS ARE NOTED IN ALASKA

United States Coast Guard Service To Investigate Number of Useless Voyages

JUNEAU, Alaska, Aug. 10.—Coast guardsmen, who have sent their cutters racing over Alaskan seas to aid distress reported in distress only to find no ship needing assistance, are becoming suspicious.

The cutter Haida returned to port last night after investigating reports that a trawler had been sighted flying distress signals off Cape Edgcomb last Monday afternoon.

Her officers said they saw many trawlers, but none that needed aid. The guardsmen learned navy planes went out from Sitka soon after the distress report was received, and could find no trace of the trawler.

Guardsmen have been sent to sea four times recently to investigate such reports. Now efforts may be made to trace the origin of these reports to "find out what it is all about."

DISAPPEARING FOREST RESOURCES

Delegates to the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association in convention at Duchesnay, Quebec, were told recently that the United States National Research Council was spending $750,000,000 annually on forest conservation, while in Canada the annual outlay for the same purpose, by Federal and Provincial Governments, was approximately $5,500,000. As the gathering of the principal theme was the promotion of forest conservation, it was pointed out by Mr. J. S. Bourque, Quebec's Minister of Lands and Forests, that the day had gone by when the forest resources of Quebec, or of anywhere else, were regarded as inexhaustible. The fact that the United States has found it desirable to spend such a huge sum of money in forest conservation of one form or another indicates the ravages that have taken place through fire, pests, cutting that is wasteful and in other ways.

It is not only greater care that is needed to save timber resources; there must be a planned reforestation policy extending through the years. Where timber flourished luxuriantly a brief quarter of a century ago there are graveyards of stumps extending through large areas of Vancouver Island. Save for what it has done in fighting forest fires and promoting an educational campaign designed for their prevention, the Provincial Government has, very largely, proceeded on the assumption that in the matter of timber resources it is possible for the people to eat their cake and have it. There has been no compensatory reforestation provided to make good what is taken by commercial cutting. The annual depletion of timber resources proceeds apace, not only by what is taken for commercial use, but through fire and blights of one kind or another.

All governments should desire to perpetuate the commercial timber supply, and to do so they have got to plan for and look long years ahead. In this province the vision has been peculiarly short-sighted. It is only within recent years that the old official conception that natural increase replaced all losses had to be corrected. A survey of forest resources in this province thirty years ago and today would afford a striking illustration of the growing needs of reforestation. Unless that plan is devised on a comprehensive scale one of the province's greatest resources may well have largely disappeared in the next quarter of a century.

ALBERTA'S FINANCES

The spokesmen of Social Credit in Alberta pride themselves on the financial record of Premier Aberhart and his Government, pointing out in this particular that the province has not borrowed under the present regime, and that, therefore, its debt has not risen. It sought to borrow, strenuously enough, but no one would lend Alberta money, no issue could be floated with any chance of success because Alberta's credit went by the board through the policies adopted by the Social Credit Party. Since April 1, 1938, six bond issues, totaling $11,000,000, have been defaulted. As well, despite the letter and the spirit affected contracts entered into for loans, the Aberhart Government cut interest rates in half, thus breaking faith with investors. More than that, sinking funds providing for the liquidation of loans have been raided by the Government for general expenditure. Despite all this immoral practice taxation in the province has been increased.

Premier Aberhart boasts of having effected a saving of $3,176,000 a year in interest charges. He gloats over having reneged on interest obligations. In 1935 when a Social Credit Government assumed power Alberta's income through tax collections was $8,772,000. Last year the amount collected was $13,454,000, mainly due to increased taxation, and not through any general improvement in conditions in the province. Per capita collections have increased from 20.47 three years ago to $31.22 last year. Although there is more onerous taxation the current budget forecasts a deficit of $1,151,000.

If there is anything in this record that indicates a sound financial position it only exists in the minds of Premier Aberhart and his supporters. There are thousands upon thousands of investors in Alberta's bonds who have come to rely on the character of the administration prevailing there with its oblique moral outlook. The word of Alberta is now known as not worth the paper it is written on, the financial course pursued under Premier Aberhart and his colleagues has done more than anything else could have done to injure the cause of Social Credit.

IRISH REPUBLICAN ARMY

Mr. de Valera realizes that the Irish Republican Army's criminal campaign in England has halted his efforts to induce the British Government to look favorably on the inclusion of Northern Ireland in Eire. Moreover, there have been other repercussions that are doing Eire harm Great injury has been inflicted on the tourist traffic in Ireland. People will not go there while they believe there is an organized gang of murderers in the land. During the discussion on the subject in the Senate at Dublin, one speaker, Professor Michael Tierney, said: "Suppose that the British abolished partition as a result of these bombings, it would be the surest consecration of anarchy here at home. It would be a confession that the people have not the right to govern themselves, that anybody who felt deeply about anything could go out and throw a bomb."

Another Senator, Mr. Desmond Fitzgerald, said that it was morally certain that these outrages and the whole plan of campaign started in Ireland, and that "the people responsible are dragging Ireland's name in the dust and are denying the country's right to self-government." Mr. de Valera has condemned the movement and methods of the Irish Republican Army in saying that,

"If it is declared that force is to be used for the furtherance of national objectives, there is only one authority which has the right to do that. It is the Government and Parliament of this State." The Irish Government, however, is not, seemingly, taking strong enough steps to disband the Republican Army. That it should enjoy that name and be able to operate through directions from Ireland in a campaign of terrorism in England is a reflection on the de Valera Administration which could well be expected to take far more drastic action against such criminals than any yet put into practice.

HEADACHES

The British Medical Association has been told that there are many causes, other than physical disorders, that lead to headaches and that may well be believed to be the case. One of the most potent of these is "unwanted visitors," and others are loud voices, the prospect of unpleasant tasks, dislike of other people, depression, worry, insomnia and insults. To this list might well have been added bores and obsessiveness, and they are in much the same class. Yet another cause of headaches is the conversationalist who can talk of little or nothing but himself or herself and his and her petty reactions to things. It may well be true that more than any other kind of noise the human voice is responsible for the most headaches, since the introduction of radio broadcasting. The human voice, indeed, has a lot to answer for; it is, ultimately, the generator of all wars.

Headaches are universal. They can occur to a person with full or one with debilitated habits; they can attack the perfectly healthy. They can instil terror and confusion. There is the headache called hemiparesis (the migraine of French and the megrim of old English writers). There are the headaches that seem to have little cessation in recurrence save through change of air, scene and occupation. There are those caused by excessive intellectual application. Others are due to some physical disorder and there are some which have no assignable cause. There is undoubtedly a certain freedom which may be won from headaches by listening sparingly to the voices of others. The tympanic membrane is of delicate construction and the use of it can be abused.

THEFT OF MOTOR CARS

The Judge of the Ottawa Juvenile Court believes it should be an offence under the law for the driver of a motor car to leave it unattended, unlocked and the key in the ignition. He expresses the opinion that in Ottawa, at least, 90 per cent of the cars stolen are taken because it is made so easy for thieves. There are many cities where the owners of motor cars take all the precautions themselves. In London, Ontario, the police assist in preventing car thefts. They check parked cars, and if they find keys in the ignition they remove them, take them to the police station, and the owners have to call there for them. It is claimed that this practice has reduced car thefts by 99 per cent. It is careless habits in this respect that encourage the theft of motor cars. In this town it is probably the exception and not the rule to find motor cars locked. There have been many car thefts here, and perhaps in every case the owners have been to blame to the extent of their carelessness.

Zara, on the Dalmatian coast, has had no taxes since 1919. Sugar can be bought there at 2 cents a pound and gasoline at 5 cents a gallon, which illustrates the extent to which the cost of living is controlled by taxation.

'Tis the property of all true knowledge to enlarge the soul by filling it; to enlarge it without swelling it; to make it more capable and more earnest to know, the more it knows.—Bishop Sprat.

Every man, however humble his station and feeble his powers, exercises some influence on those who are about him good or evil.—A. Bede.

Glancing Over Sport

A month from now the children will be back at school, the softball and baseball seasons will be over and the general topic then should centre around basketball, soccer, English Rugby and Canadian football. By the way, Benny McMillan, manager of the new entry in the grid league, tells me that Victoria will have a good showing in the Big Four circuit. When the players get down to serious training they will work out every evening at Macdonald Park, and the schedule opens. Elaborate opening ceremonies are already being planned. It will mark the return of the game here after several seasons. Windsor Alumni, runners-up to the Dominion in the last season at the Willows, will be fortified when the next campaign gets under way. Willie "Moose" Rogin has returned to Windsor to teach school, but will be with the club. Rogin, who has been with the Dominion for a short time during the season of 1937-8, but returned home before the play-offs commenced in the B.C. series. Here's another tip to the Victoria All-Star Ball Club. How about trying out on the diamond in future with uniforms looking spic and span. Some of the boys figure it's too much trouble to run their suits through a wringer and get some of the diamond dust out of them—J.D.

Didn't Know Movies

"Come on up to try a new brew," Bill, the Broad Street barber, said to a friend. "Sorry, Willie, I have to go and see the 'Dead End Kids'." The friend replied, "That's all right, lad, bring them along." "No," said the barber, "I don't want to see them." "A friend who is a physician told Aubrey that frequent water drinking would prevent a person from becoming stout in the joints. Aubrey instantly replied that some of the joints did not serve water. These are the days when the sign "Cold" on a tap is most misleading. Final for the city's safety week: Perhaps accidents are not preventable, but they are avoidable. Some talk about the chief suffering imposed on man, how about high taxes? Some of our neighbors feel that it is a most terrible thing to hear a choice piece of scandal, and then find out it is not true—G.B.

Vancouver Beachcombers

Beneath the shadow of the Sleeping Beauty, on the north shore of Vancouver's Burrard Inlet, is a popular bathing beach. There, during the tourist season this year, the age old profession of beachcombing has been revived, with unusual success. A number of men and boys who live in the district, we are informed, visit the beach regularly at low tide, when there are few swimmers around and profit in no small measure from the carelessness of the beach patrons. Among the seaweed, the flotsam and jetsam brought in by the flood tide, they find various odds and ends that have dropped out of pockets and handbags on the beach, been taken out to sea, and cast up again. Treasures found include suitcases, a number of keys and wrist watches. The pickings are good for those with sharp eyes, and one member of the ebb tide patrol was richer by eighteen dollars as a result of a few hours' work before breakfast this morning. But don't all go over to Vancouver—our report has it that amateurs who don't know where to look have spent hours in fruitless searching, with wet feet and a stiff neck as their only reward—E.B.

Diamond Dust

After playing five championship games without tasting defeat, Pitzer & Nex dropped a 7-1 decision to the Athletics Wednesday evening at the Caledonia Avenue ball lot. But don't be alarmed, you cheering supporters, the club is a long way from being beaten in the Ritheli Club series at this stage. Bert Nex, veteran player, is deserving of considerable praise for the way he has brought the club along since taking over the position of manager. Bert and his age-old cry, "the old pepper," have long been associated with the diamond pastime, and judging by the comments Mr. Nex is a very popular player. This is baseball's centennial year, and the Victoria Baseball Association is doing its best to mark the occasion with a number of special attractions. House of David played here last week. Broadway Clowns play here this week. Better attractions will be here before the season ends, so we are told. Victoria's baseball school enrollment is now close to 200, and the boys are really taking an interest in their work. According to instructor Fred McGinnis, Manager Harry Crump, boys of the Davidson, was impressed with Ray Casey, Victoria third baseman, in Saturday's games—S.T.

Cooler Weather Enjoyed in Victoria Yesterday—No Change Today

Fanned by a fresh breeze, Victoria was a much cooler place yesterday than it had been for several days, and the indications are that today's weather will be equally pleasant. The maximum temperature recorded at the Meteorological Observatory on Gonzales Hill was 69 degrees, and the minimum 53 degrees. At Victoria College the maximum reading was 74 degrees, and the minimum 53. Twelve hours and thirty minutes of sunshine was recorded. The breeze was from the southwest, and reached a velocity of 20 miles an hour.

Other parts of the Island and the Mainland were considerably hotter than Victoria, headed by Kamloops, with a maximum temperature of 100 degrees. Nanaimo had 80 degrees and Vancouver was 1 degree warmer. Seattle and Portland both reported maximum temperatures of 89 degrees.

BEER PARLORS

Sir,—I have been coming to Victoria to spend the month of August for the past ten years. In addition to Victoria being a very picturesque and unique place it has always impressed me by its clean lines and freedom from drunkenness on the streets. In this regard it is very different from our American cities, and your surrounding Canadian cities. For this reason it is a pleasure to let the people of our city know that Victoria would even consider installing beer parlors to pollute its streets.

Personally, I am not a teetotaler myself, but beer parlors do not do absolutely no good and, I think, a great deal of harm. People from my section of the country speak of Victoria as a very clean place.

I don't know who this Moderation League is, but I strongly suggest that the citizens of Victoria take heed of what they are trying to do and stop them from spoiling the city of PARKER T. REID, 2340 Emerson Street, Oakland, Calif., U.S.A., August 7, 1939.

BEER PLEBISCITE

Sir,—It is very gratifying to see that the citizens of the city of Victoria have formed a citizens' committee to let the people of our city know what is going on and that they will have an opportunity to vote on August 24 to decide whether or not they want beer parlors in the city. It is apparently the idea of the promoters of this plebiscite to keep it as quiet as possible and try and slide it through.

I am at a loss to understand why our Government is so near-sighted as to permit a plebiscite of this nature to be held in August when a great many of our citizens are out of town and the vote registered might not be the will of the people. Therefore, should this plebiscite be carried, our local Government might fail their to considerable criticism.

Obviously, North "bid his head off."

West opened his fourth highest heart. The ace won and the diamond queen was led through East, who covered. Declarer won and led a low spade to the king. West naturally ducked, but in doing so, carefully used a false card, the nine spot, that was destined to have profound effect on the subsequent play. The spade king holding, another diamond was led, and, after a long lull, declarer played the jack, selling West's lone ten spot. The diamond nine now was led, declarer being perfectly willing to let West use one of his trumps as a ruff, but West was far too wily. It was apparent that no club tricks could be expected by the defender. Declarer had no more hearts. Thus, if West were to ruff the third diamond lead, it was virtually certain that he never would take more than his three trump tricks which, of course, would mean a fulfilled contract. Rather than make matters easy for declarer, West discarded a heart. Now declarer realized that he would have to take the club finesse sooner or later, hence decided to take it on the spot. OFF he led and the ace was cashed. At this point declarer was "home." He led dummy's six of spades, and, when East played the five spot, did not even bother to put in the ten, since he was practically certain that West had the ace and jack.

It was at this point that West made the play that forms the basis and crux of this article. With no perceptible hesitation, West won the trick, not with the spade eight, but with the jack. In doing this he realized fully that he was surrendering his A-J tenace over declarer's Q-10, but (as we will see) there was very good method in his madness. Having won with the jack, West returned another heart and declarer ruffed. Now (just as

Paying Visit Here on Way to Honolulu

Miss V. D. Morris Becomes Bride of Mr. V. H. Graham Before Large Gathering in St. Mark's Church — To Live in Vancouver

In St. Mark's Church, Salt Spring Island, a pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, when Violet Daphne, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Case Morris, of North Salt Spring, became the bride of Mr. Vivian Hamilton Graham, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Graham, of Sidney. Rev. C. H. Popham, vicar of the parish, officiated. Mrs. G. B. Young played the wedding music, and as the bridal party entered and left the church, the congregation sang "Lead Us, Heavenly Father, Lead Us."

The church was artistically decorated by friends of the bride with masses of Summer flowers, which made a pretty background for the ceremony. On the altar white asters, stocks and gypsophylla were arranged. Gladioli, stocks, delphiniums and Shasta daisies were used in the chancel, and posies of stocks, roses and gypsophylla, tied with white satin ribbon, marked the guest pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, made a lovely picture as she entered the church to the strains of Schubert's "Wedding March." Her exquisite gown was of white marquisette crepe, a bolero with a high neck line and long sleeves edged with narrow ruching, and a shirred high waist line and long, very full skirt, trimmed with three rows of wide lace insertions, the bottom row being edged with narrow lace grill. She wore a large white burl straw hat, trimmed with white grosgrain ribbon, and carried a shower bouquet of scarlet carnations, maidenhair fern and gypsophylla.

ATTENDANTS IN BLUE
Miss Winsome Morris, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Louise Layard and Miss Peggy Rowan were bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in Empire gowns of Queen's blue georgette, with long, full skirts. The light-fitting bodices and short sleeves were shirred and trimmed with narrow bands of dusty pink velvet ribbon, and broader bands of the same ribbon were used at the tiny matching hats, which were trimmed with chaitreuse ostrich tips. They carried bouquets of pink and blue larkspur. The best man was Mr. Fred Morris.

About 100 guests were entertained after the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents. Summer flowers were arranged throughout the rooms and hall and on the small tables, which were placed on the lawn beneath the shade of the trees. The bride and groom received their guests in the garden, and were assisted by Mrs. Morris, in a smart costume of figured natural colored silk linen, with sleeveless bolero, picture hat of old gold, with old-gold accessories, and a corsage bouquet of gerberas, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Graham, who wore an attractive suit of jade green, large hat of natural straw, with flowers to tone and matching accessories.

The wedding cake stood on a table decorated with white ribbon and trails of fern, and was surmounted by a flat silver ornament containing a Victorian bouquet of Sweetheart roses. Prior to the cutting of the cake by the bride, the toast to the bride was proposed by her uncle, Mr. A. B. Cartwright, and responded to by the groom.

TO LIVE IN VANCOUVER
Later in the day the bride and groom left for Vancouver en route to the United States. For traveling the bride wore a teal blue gaberdine suit, white turban and white accessories, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Graham, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin and lace frock, and her veil was attached to a crown of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations.

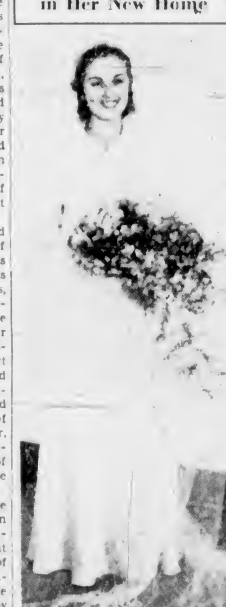

The Misses Winnie and Marguerite Estridge were the bridesmaids. They wore charming frocks of turquoise blue and daffodil yellow, and carried bouquets of sweet peas. The little flower girl was Eileen Richards, dressed in Nile green tulle with net to correspond. Mr. H. W. Estridge supported the groom. The bride's mother, wearing a grey ensemble with mauve accessories, and the groom's sister, Mrs. M. Horne, assisted in receiving the guests at the reception held at the Alexis Hall, Burnside. Dancing was enjoyed. Dr. S. R. Richardson presided.

MANY CONDITIONS CAUSE SYMPTOMS SIMILAR TO APPENDICITIS

"More than twenty-four serious conditions may cause pain on the right side of the abdomen. For example, such pain occasionally occurs in diseases of the brain, pneumonia, and pleurisy at lower surface of right lung. An inflamed and distended gall bladder, kidney colic, inflammation of the intestines or acute obstruction of the intestine may produce symptoms similar to appendicitis."

Other conditions which may be taken for appendicitis are typhoid, tuberculous abscess of the lung, the groin, or right hip; perforation or ulceration of the stomach; ulcer, lead colic, acute inflammation of the pancreas; lead colic; hysteria, and just fear of appendicitis."

I am quoting Dr. Louis M. Lebow, New York, in Hygiene.

Despite the large number of conditions which cause pain on the right lower side of the abdomen and thus be mistaken for appendicitis. It is only good sense to consider the condition as appendicitis until an examination by a physician shows it to be one of these other conditions.

There are many warning, any symptoms that occur before the pain in the right side appears that may help the patient and the physician also in knowing that an attack of appendicitis may be on its way.

Symptoms which should serve as a warning include nausea, indigestion, vomiting, loss of appetite, flatulence (gas pressure), a sense of heaviness and soreness and tenderness over the lower right side.

In a great many cases the dull heavy pain is right in the pit of the stomach, sometimes there sometimes down to the lower right side of the abdomen.

In many ailments—gall bladder colic, ulcer of stomach or intestine, kidney colic—there is both the medical and surgical treatment, but Dr. Lebow points out once more that "There is no medical treatment for appendicitis. The use of any physic, no matter how mild, may tend to rupture the acutely inflamed appendix and lead to dangerous complications."

Sometimes when a physic has been taken there is relief from pain for a while because the appendix has been ruptured and the patient believes he has cleared up the cause of the pain, whereas he has only started dangerous complications, peritonitis. Peritonitis requires immediate surgery and this may be too late to save his life.

Once again, then, the warning is sounded that while all severe pains in right lower abdomen are not due to appendicitis, it is better to treat them as appendicitis until the physician arrives.

Saved the Life Of His Accuser

EAST HAVEN, Conn. Aug. 10 (AP)—Ralph Amato, forty-five-year-old proprietor of a seaside restaurant, rescued a drowning man who started swimming to a launch anchored seventy-five feet offshore after dining at his place last night.

Two hours later a state police raiding squad arrested the restaurant keeper on charges of violating the liquor and gaming laws.

Amato learned today the man he saved was State Trooper Walter Newman, twenty-seven, assigned to get evidence against him.

HOLD OWN AFTER TWO WEEKS' FIGHT

Fire fighters said a continued weather break would see the 1,200-acre Dutch Canyon fire, fanning southward from the Columbia River in Oregon, trailed tonight. The conflagration menaced farms near North Plains.

Fifty small fires burned in Washington, mostly in slashings. Idaho fires ailed within their lines, including the huge fire at Spirit Lake, in the Panhandle.

A general drop in temperatures and chaste fogs were predicted for Western Oregon and Washington.

TENSION IS EASED

Tension eased throughout British Columbia last night (Thursday) as forestry officials reported all major forest fires under control.

Continued hot weather, however, has made the situation in tinder-dry forests "extremely hazardous," officials said.

In Nelson district, the situation has gradually improved with lower temperatures of the last two days. A flare-up at Blueberry Creek, near Trail, has been quelled, and the fire-fighting crew reduced to a dozen men. The Howser Lake blaze in Lardeau district was brought under control by a crew of sixty. Temperature at Nelson on Thursday rose to a maximum of 85.

There was no change reported in the Kamloops area situation. Large crews have been able to maintain control of incendiary and other forest fires of the past week. Several days of extremely hot weather have made the situation dangerous, however. The mercury Thursday hit 100 degrees, the highest temperature in the province.

In Victoria, where the maximum temperature was 69 and Nanaimo, where the mercury hit 80, officials reported everything fairly well under control, with no new fires.

Forestry officers at Vancouver said there were no new outbreaks in their district, which includes the southern coast district and Vancouver Island.

At Grand Forks, the temperature rose to 98 degrees. Kelowna posted a maximum of 91.

DEFENCE AGAINST RAIDS STAUNCH

All roadside lights, electric signs and skylights were turned off.

COMPLETE DARKNESS
The business part of London, normally quiet at that hour, was in complete darkness.

A real contrast was to be found in London's West End. Here darkness hushed the merry-makers and the white shirt fronts of the men and bare shoulders of the women were scarcely discernible as Mayfair turned out to watch the blackout with hundreds of thousands of other Londoners.

There wasn't much to see. Just ghostly houses, dark figures of pedestrians and here and there, pencil-like the night sky, scores of searchlight beams.

Every so often a beam picked up one of the big silver saucers of the balloon barrage riding on its steel cable over the city, and a murmur ran through the crowds.

Many pilots and machine gunners had stood by their planes all day, watching for a break in the weather, which caused the blackout to be postponed from yesterday.

ALL BLINDS DRAWN
Trains ran with drawn blinds and shields over locomotive funnels.

Night factories and newspaper offices worked with black paper or other shields over windows. Special police with white sleeves directed passengers to buses.

The police had no power to order private lighting to be extinguished, but requested householders to comply with the blackout.

Among other large cities affected was Birmingham, Rochester, Brighton and Bedford.

Rain, low clouds and mist came in from the West yesterday and prevailed in the South until evening. An improvement followed later and better conditions spread to all areas except the extreme Southeast.

The weather conditions were responsible for a decrease in the "enemy" raiding activities which were mainly confined to two periods, one between 10 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. and one between 4:20 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

Flying attacks carried out in Norfolk and between the Wash and Grimsby in an attempt to penetrate the improved conditions early this morning followed later and better conditions spread to all areas except the extreme Southeast.

MANY ACTS TO SHOW AT FAIR

Big Programme of Entertainment Is Booked for Willows Exhibition

Through arrangements made with the Panchon Maroo entertainment circuit, the British Columbia Agricultural Association has been able to book the biggest programme of entertainment to be held at the horse show programme held at the Willows in connection with the annual fall fair, it was announced yesterday by W. H. Mearns, secretary of the exhibition association.

The entertainment includes a five-act animal show and four other turns of outstanding merit. Many of the acts have been used by Hollywood motion picture studios, and the entertainment this year has met with great success in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland and other Pacific Coast cities.

The animal acts are as follows: Liberty and military drill by Shetland ponies; comedy mule, cart and two clown riders; wire walking and high jumping dogs, "Act Beautiful" pony, decorated cart, twenty doves and lady driver, and comedy bareback riding dogs and ponies. Other acts include Jack Joyce & Company, one of the finest comedy acts in America that has come direct from the Ringling Brothers Circus.

Douglas Wright & Company comprise one lady and two men presenting two separate and distinct acts. One is called "Charlie the Horse," a travesty and comedy act, and the other, "Ferdinand the Bull," a timely and sure fire comedy. Both these acts were featured in the recent Joe E. Brown picture.

This entertainment, together with the competitions provided in the horse show, will provide the public with an outstanding attraction during Fair Week, Mr. Mearns stated.

HEINZ OVEN BAKED BEANS

What Today Means

"LEO"

If August 11 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:45 to 11:45 a.m., from 1:45 to 3:45 p.m. and from 8:45 to 10:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:45 to 9:45 a.m.; from 6:45 to 8:45 p.m. and from 10:45 p.m. until midnight.

Sympathetic understanding will be an indispensable adjunct to the prevailing traits of character this day, if a clear comprehension is to be had regarding the peculiarities of some of your friends or business associates. Nervousness may be the cause of many people acting strangely. Impatience is apt to result in confusion, or have a very demoralizing effect on those who are subjected to it. You probably will find that back of every delay there will be a logical excuse, so remember that explanations are all-ways in order, and that this is a day on which it might be well to wait until they are made before jumping to any conclusion. Patriotism is a splendid attribute, but it ought never to be used as a medium to vent one's spleen or to further anyone's ambition, and this will be a poor day to resort to it for either of the foregoing purposes. Married and engaged couples, and those who are experiencing the exhilarating effects of love, will find that a spirit of co-operation is likely to be necessary to make this an ideal day free from friction.

If a woman and August 11 is your birthday, you may have many unique ideas. It is important for you to realize that originality is a precious gift so long as it does not upset routine or clash with other people's ideas. You may be predisposed to be unduly suspicious of people and the motives, back of their actions. You are probably very tenacious, and have the courage to back your convictions. You should have the qualities required to be a good business woman, or a great social success. The chances are that you will acquire the habit of doing things in a very methodical and practical manner. As a physical instructor, designer, interior decorator, artist, musician, writer, teacher, missionary, librarian, sales-lady, or lecturer you may make an outstanding record for yourself. Apparently you will have no serious matrimonial problems, and a great deal of freedom, financial independence, as well as a gratifying amount of social activity.

The child born on August 11 must be taught to use its head in cases of emergency, for it is likely to be very fond of swimming, boating and camping. Everything possible should be done to develop this youngster's self-reliance.

If a man and August 11 is your natal day, through mental, rather than physical achievements, you can expect success that will be worth while. Your achievements as a publisher, editor, author, actor, promoter, doctor, lawyer, clergyman, inventor, financier, agriculturist, engineer, architect or sales representative may bring you great financial gain and an enviable name.

"THIS IS MY IDEA OF A PERFECTLY MOD-VELOUS CUP OF COFFEE!"

"Coffee seems to taste just right when it's made with Borden's Evaporated Milk," asserts Elsie, the Borden Cow.

That's because Borden's Evaporated Milk is so smooth and creamy. It's the pure milk from Borden-inspected cows like Elsie, evaporated to double-rich creaminess soon after milking time. Borden's is always extra fresh . . . and extra good for all the family because it's irradiated for an added supply of the essential "Sunshine" Vitamin D.

Easy to digest, safe, and supremely nourishing, Borden's Evaporated Milk improves all your cooking. It's the ideal milk for kitchen and table use. Always ask your grocer for Borden's.

WEEP FOR LOVE

CHAPTER XXIX

When Lawless next spoke, she heard his voice as if from a great distance.

"I'll have to look at the next stampout. We ought to be able to pick one up directly. The fog is certainly lifting. Don't you think so?"

She found her voice with a supreme effort.

"Yes, I think it is. I can see the hedges. This side quite plainly. Funny to be able to speak so quietly about ordinary things. 'Perhaps we shall get to Dover in time after all,' she said presently.

"It's past eleven now," he warned her, "and the fog may come down again."

She did not answer in words, but, impulsively, she slipped her hand into his.

He turned his head, his fingers clasp round hers, and they looked at each other for a long moment in silence.

"I will—ring you up—when I come back from Paris," Elizabeth said tremulously.

A wave of emotion crossed his face, though there was the echo of a laugh in his voice as he answered:

"If you do—I shall be there," and then he released her hand and drove on.

For the rest of the way Elizabeth kept her eyes closed, only conscious of her overpowered weariness. Her limbs and eyelids seemed to be weighted with lead, and yet the end of this journey was the last thing she wished for.

Sympathetic understanding will be an indispensable adjunct to the prevailing traits of character. This day, if a clear comprehension is to be had regarding the peculiarities of some of your friends or business associates. Nervousness may be the cause of many people acting strangely. Impatience is apt to result in confusion, or have a very demoralizing effect on those who are subjected to it. You probably will find that back of every delay there will be a logical excuse, so remember that explanations are all ways in order and that this is a day on which it might be well to wait until they are made before jumping to any conclusion. Patriotism is a splendid attribute, but it ought never to be used as a medium to vent one's spleen or to further any one's ambition, and this will be a poor day to resort to it for either of the foregoing purposes. Married and engaged couples, and those who are experiencing the exhilarating effects of love, will find that a spirit of co-operation is likely to be necessary to make this an ideal day free from friction.

If a woman and August 11 is your birthday, you may have many unique ideas. It is important for you to realize that originality is a precious gift so long as it does not upset routine or clash with other people's ideas. You may be predisposed to be unduly suspicious of people and the motives back of their actions. You are probably very touchy, and have the courage to back your convictions. You should have the qualities required to be a good business woman, or a great social success. The chances are that you will acquire the habit of doing things in a very methodical and practical manner. As a physical instructor, designer, interior decorator, artist, musician, writer, teacher, missionary, librarian, sales-lady, or lecturer you may make an outstanding record for yourself. Apparently, you will have no serious enemies, for it is likely to be a very fond of swimming, boating and camping. Everything possible should be done to develop this youngster's self-reliance.

If a man and August 11 is your natal day, through mental, rather than physical achievements, you can expect success that will be worth while. Your achievements as a publisher, editor, author, actor, promoter, doctor, lawyer, clergyman, financier, agriculturist, engineer, architect or sales representative may bring you great financial gain and an enviable name.

SCOTTISH SOCCER SEASON TO START TOMORROW

Boston Continues to Cut Lead of Yanks In American Loop

Red Sox Win Fifth Straight by Beating Athletics While New York Are Losing to Senators—Only Five and a Half Games in Front—Chicago Cubs Down the Cincy Reds

By The Canadian Press
Cincinnati's league-leading Reds smashed home three unearned runs to help the Cubs to a 4-1 triumph at Chicago yesterday in their series final, and cut the Red's first-place margin over the St. Louis Cardinals to seven and a half games. Cincinnati won the series, three games to two.

Lonnie Perry's fumble of Bill Nicholson's grounder led to two unearned runs in the sixth inning and Billy Myers' miff of Augie Galan's pop fly in the seventh was another that contributed to Paul Derringer's seventh setback.

It was Vance Page's first successful start since United States Memorial Day, and although hit hard early, he yielded only two hits in the last four innings, one of them Wally Berger's fourth homer of the series. Billy Herman smashed out a circuit drive in the first inning.

In New York, making six runs on seven hits, the Giants whipped the Boston Bees, 6-3, to sweep their three-game series and take over fourth place in the league.

Cliff Melton held the Bees to five hits, four of them coming in the fourth inning when Al Simmons' homer, a walk, two singles and a sacrifice brought the Bees all their runs.

THREE-HIT PITCHING
Shutout by Brooklyn, 3-0, on Luke Hamlin's three-hit hurling, the Phillies crammed seven runs into the sixth inning of yesterday's second game, 8-3, and split their double-header with the Dodgers at Philadelphia.

"Hot Potato" Hamlin was as hot as the weather in taking his second consecutive shutout, never walking a batter and facing only twenty-nine Phillies. The Dodgers themselves got just four hits off bespectacled Walter Beck, but one of these was a homer by Rookie Art Parks in the sixth.

Brooklyn was leading 3-1 when the Phillies staged their spree in the nightcap. Joe Marty's triple with the bases loaded and Merrill May's single with three on were the big blows.

In the American League, Dutch Leonard's hex over the world champion Yankees was good for a 7-5 victory for the Senators at Washington, even though the veteran knuckleballer had to be lifted in mid-game for a pinch-hitter.

Only pitcher in the league who had beaten New York three times, Leonard gained his fourth triumph when Bobby Estalella, his pinch-hitter, singled with the bases loaded in the fifth for the tying and winning runs.

The victory gave Washington the series, 2-1, and a record of seven out of fourteen games with the champions this season.

Monte Pearson started for the Yankees, but Maris Russo and Steve Sundra were needed before the finish. Pete Appleton replaced Leonard for Washington.

EXTENDS STREAK
At Boston, the Red Sox extended their winning streak to five games as they came from behind once more to nip the Philadelphia A's, 7-5, and sweep the four-game series.

The victory, coupled with the Yankees' defeat, left the pennant-hungry Sox only five and a half games behind first place.

All of the A's runs were built on homers. Babe Siebert doubled in the first inning just before Bob Johnson dumped his seventeenth homer of the year into the left field screen. In the third, Frank Hayes

New Method Laundry Whips Longshoremen In Playdown Fixture

Lionel Bradley's Homer in Third Frame With One Man On Gives Clubmates 5-1 Victory Over Stevedores in Lower Island Softball

Fielding brilliantly in the pinches, a fighting New Method Laundry softball nine last night put a crimp into the championship aspirations of the Victoria Longshoremen by checking in with a 5-1 victory in the second game of the Lower Island finale. Stevedores took the opening battle, 7-5.

The greens at Wildwood Country Club took a huge toll from a field of the United States' best golfers. Only sixty-eight of the starting field of 160 finished below eighty.

Bracketed at 72 in the chase for $2,500 first prize were Jimmy Thomson, Shawnee-on-Deleware, Pa.; Ed Dudley, Philadelphia; Johnny Bell, Evansville, Ind.; Harold (Jug) McSpaden, Winchester, Mass.; Byron Nelson, Reading, Pa., native open champion and one of the favorites, and Ralph Guldahl, Madison, N.J.

LAUNDRY KNOTS SCORE
Longshoremen scored by putting out three base blows and scoring two runs, and victory paroled to the Canadian Avenue ball lot was beginning to feel somewhat strained. However, the excitement was all premature, as the laundrymen came back with a pair of markers in their half of the inning and knotted the score.

After the two clubs went scoreless in the second, New Method Laundry drove across three runs in the third, and for the rest of the game it was a parade of home runs on the large score board that hangs on the Pembroke Street fence.

Lionel Bradley slugging first baseman of the New Method nine really pulled out the winning hit and scored the deciding run with a circuit drive to the left-centrefield fence.

Bob McKean was on the keystone bag at the time. Bill Buddell worked for six innings on the mound before giving way to Harold Turner. The starting hurler gave up seven base hits and four runs during his sojourn on the hill.

GOES TO SHOWERS
Husky Bill Tesky opened for the Stevedores, but went to the showers in the third stanza after Lionel Bradley hammered out his circuit drive.

The score: New Method Laundry, 5; Stevedores, 1. R. H. E. Longshoremen . . . 200 200 00-4 7 3 New Method . . . 203 000 00-5 6 2

Batteries: Tesky, McLellan; and Knapp, Buddell. Turner 1; and Berry.

WINS TROTTER EVENT
GOSHEN N.Y. Aug. 10 (AP)—The trotting Derby for four-year-olds today's feature of the fourth-day Grand Circuit programme at Good Time Park was won by the popular favorite, Long Key. The colt, owned by E. J. Merkle, of Columbus, Ohio, and driven by Ben White, was under the whip in the first heat to catch Dale Hanover in the last stride, but beat him more easily in the final heat. The event was worth $2,632.

BOXLA SQUADS MEET TONIGHT
Conservatives Out to Break Winning Streak of James Bay Stickhandlers

Every athlete and every club has a pet ambition, and the Conservatives' pet ambition is to defeat Manager Ted Menies' pace-setting James Bay senior stickhandlers. That's the task facing Coach Gus Munroe's proteges when the clubs battle this evening at the Victoria Sports Centre.

Sitting in second place, two points ahead of the cellar occupant, Alert Service, Conservatives will increase their margin if they turn back the league leaders this evening. Only a few weeks ago the Bays were hard pressed to eke out a 22-21 victory, and Munroe figures it about time his boys halted the championship rush of the James Bay aggregation.

The leaders were dealt a stunning blow yesterday with the announcement that Austin Cullin, one of their most dangerous players and ace sharpshooter, is off the injured list. One of the smartest players in the senior circuit, Cullin is always a source of trouble to opposing defences.

RANGERS WILL FACE ST. MIRREN IN GAME AT IBROX ENCLOSURE

Last Season's League Champions Pitted Against Saints While Celtic Will Take On Aberdeen at Pittodrie Park—Queen's Park Will Be Missing From the First Division

GLASGOW, Aug. 10 (CP)—When the Scottish soccer season opens on Saturday the familiar black and white colors of Queen's Park will be missing from the league's First Division. The famous amateurs, relegated last April along with Raith Rovers, will play in the Second Division for the second time in their long and colorful career.

Cowdenbeath and Alloa, promoted to senior status, have figured in the major league previously and, based on last season's play, should provide strong opposition in their new field of competition.

Scottish clubs face the season with the possibility that many players will be called up for compulsory military service. Of those already called in the first draft, J. McKenna, Partick Thistles eleven forward, and J. Galloway, of Glasgow Rangers, are most outstanding.

Rangers are again looked upon by the experts as the most formidable squad in the league. The Light Blues, in a runaway campaign, won their twenty-fourth championship last season, and St. Mirren will be visitor at Ibrox Park for the opening game of the forthcoming campaign. The Saints narrowly escaped demotion in April.

In other important contests, Celtic runners-up last season, will meet Aberdeen at Pittodrie Park. Cowdenbeath will be at home to Third Lanark and Alloa will entertain St. Johnstone.

When the present promotion-relegation system was adopted in the 1931-32 season, Queen's Park lost major league status for the first time, but the amateurs returned to the First Division a year later. They will find the going tougher this time with such clubs as Dundee, Morton and Airdrieonians in the fight.

Queen's Park will be at home to the Airdrie squad in its opening game. Alloa, managed by James McStay, former Celtic centre-half, is expected to make a bold showing, even with the limited resources of a mere thirteen or fourteen players. Cowdenbeath, with more than twenty players

More than pleased with the showing of the Victoria nine against the House of David last week, they dropped a 4-3 decision in the main attraction and held the Davidians to a 1-1 tie in the nightcap. Manager Fred McInnis looks to have proteges to provide some real opposition for the Broadway Clowns.

Every member of the Victoria club is looking forward to the series opening tonight, and twice this week have been 25-50 training sessions at the Caledonia Avenue ball lot. The players are showing more enthusiasm than at any time during the past two seasons, and will be in there fighting all of the way against the colored ball tossers.

DAVIDS TO FITCH
Stan Davies, young right-hander who hurled good ball in last Saturday afternoon engagement, will parade to the hilltop for Victoria. Al Gordon, a clubmate, will do the chores behind the home plate. Other members of the local starting lineup are Noel Morgan, first base; Bill Yardley, second base; Barney Barnswell, shortstop; Ray Casey, third base; Sonny Walker, right field; Chuck Russell, centre field; and Jack Blake, left field.

"Bardine" Douglas, fast ball pitcher will pitch for the Clowns, and will have "Rocking Chair" McVey, sensational young receiver, as his battery mate. The Broadway Clowns are rated about on a par with the Davidians, and during their barnstorming tour have played seven games with the bewhiskered ball tossers.

Football League Heads Re-elected At Annual Parley
J. S. "JIMMY" Hall, well-known figure in local soccer circles, was last night re-elected president of the Victoria and District Wednesday Football League at the annual meeting held in the Victoria board room. Sam Hill, former player, was returned to the post of first vice-president, while Reg Clarke succeeded George Presion as second vice-president. Percy Shrimpton, known for his years of smart goal-tending in this city, and secretary of the loop for the past five seasons, was returned back into office for another term. With a view to holding monthly social functions, the following entertainment committee was named: Charlie Lewis, Tom O'Connell, Percy Sands, Garret Baker and Ed Ball. Thursday, August 31, was set as the deadline for filing entries and the opening date was tentatively set for Wednesday, September 27.

The meeting was one of the most enthusiastic in many years, and the interest displayed by team managers and players augurs well for the success of the coming season.

Picks Eight Top Horses; Wins $3,000
CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP)—A. W. Eaton, a contractor, who spends a day at the races occasionally, picked the winners of all eight races at Washington Park yesterday to win $3,000 in the patrons' handicapping contest.

It was only necessary to pick the first seven to win, under contest rules. Three of Eaton's choices won by whiskers in photo finishes. His seventh race winner, Colonel Joe, was a 24-to-1 shot.

The $3,000 was a three-day accumulation, since no one on Monday or Tuesday won the $1,000 offered daily.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON
A House Built in a Single Night—According to an ancient Belgian law, a man could claim proprietorship of a building site in addition to 25 acres of land around it, if he succeeded in building a house in a single night so complete that its chimney would smoke the next morning. One such house built in a single night with that purpose in view still stands in Vollezele, Belgium. It was erected in 1860, and 25 acres, including the site were awarded to the rapid builder.

Stocks Work Up War-Fear Fever On Wall Street

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 (AP)—The stock market again worked up a little war-fear fever today, leading issues closed down 1 to 3 points or so at the worst.

The list eased at the opening and picked up volume on the offside near mid-day. There were frequent sharp periods, however, and closing prices generally were above the lows of the session.

Transfers for the five hours amounted to 69,000 shares against 47,510 the day before. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off 9 of a point at 47.9, the sharp decline since August 4.

Earnings statements on the home front, together with additional evidence of the industrial picture in retaining its encouraging aspect, continued as a bolstering influence but failed to stimulate buyers.

Rails, on the whole, kept declining to minor fractions. Last week's freight loadings today were reported up slightly less than seasonally, although merchandising shipments expanded substantially.

Giving ground without a great deal of opposition included Chrysler, General Motors, Sears Roebuck, Westinghouse, American Can, Johnson & Johnson, American Telephone & Telegraph, American Smelting, Dupont, Allied Chemicals and Texas Corp.

The bond market took a glance at provocative political headlines from Danzig today, then followed stocks along a downward path.

German 7 1/2 of 1949 closed at 21, off 1 1/2; Japanese 6 1/2 at 67 1/2, off 2 1/2; Italy 7 1/2 at 59 3/8, off 5/8. Dealings in United States governments were small, with most Treasuries 1-3/4 to 7-3/4 of a point lower.

LEADERS DOWN IN MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Aug. 10 (CP)—The stock market was clouded by further selling today and leading issues backed away fractions to 2 points.

Smelters, down 2 points, was the widest loser in the metal division. Nickel and Noranda slipped 3-8 each and Hollinger 1-4.

Weak members of the construction section were Steel of Canada, Building Products and General Steel.

Export sales of Canadian wheat were estimated at 250,000 bushels. Liverpool jumped 1-8 to 1-20.

Chicago grain futures were up 1-2 to 1-4. Buenos Aires remained unchanged.

Indifferent buying held cash wheat transactions at a minimum. Apart from a little interest in oats and barley, coarse grain operations were slow.

How It
STARTEDBLACKGUARD—CARETAKER OF
YE POTS AND FANS OF YE
DAYS OF OLDE

The blackguard of today is a rascal.

He may be affluent, influential and dignified.

Not so his predecessor, whose name he commemorates, who was not only of lowly station, but against whose character in the early application of the term, no innuendo was connoted.

The original blackguard was a scullion in a court of a nobleman's household.

The blackguard's duty was to carry coal and wood, and, especially during the changes of residence, to guard the kitchen utensils en route.

In the course of his job, this servant would invariably become snubbed and bedraggled, on account of which he came to be derisively labelled "black guard."

As might be expected, some of these menials, every so often, developed the scoundrelly traits exhibited by the blackguard of today. And it is these "takings" and other similar ways, rather than the vocation of their possessor, which gave the word the sense it now has.

Appeals Granted
By Zoning Board

Three appeals by owners of dwellings were considered at a sitting of the city zoning board of appeal yesterday afternoon.

Plans and specifications submitted by Major S. H. Orell for the conversion of a house at 223 Moss Street into a two-family residence were approved.

J. J. McKim sought permission to repair and extend a house at 3031 Jackson Street, partially destroyed by fire. His request was conditionally allowed, as was also an application by Mrs. Agnes Hayes for permission to extend a dwelling at 1204 Dallas Road.
